Detailed itinerary:

DAY 1: CASABLANCA ARRIVAL AT CASABLANCA AIRPORT (Or MARRAKECH)

Salam Alaykoug and Welcome to Morocco!

Today, start your journey with your international outbound flight to Casablanca. Upon arrival in Casablanca, you will be picked up at the airport by your private driver and driven to your hotel. Where you can relax. Perhaps walking in the Courniche, admiring the majestic Hassan II Mosque.

In the evening, a visit to the world famous Rick's Cafe from the Casablanca Movie, where you will enjoy your dinner, is the highlight of the evening.

You spend your first night in Morocco in Casablanca (White House)

ACCOMMODATIONS : 3 / 4 STAR HOTEL IN THE COURNICHE OF THE ATLANTIC DOUBLE ROOM BB

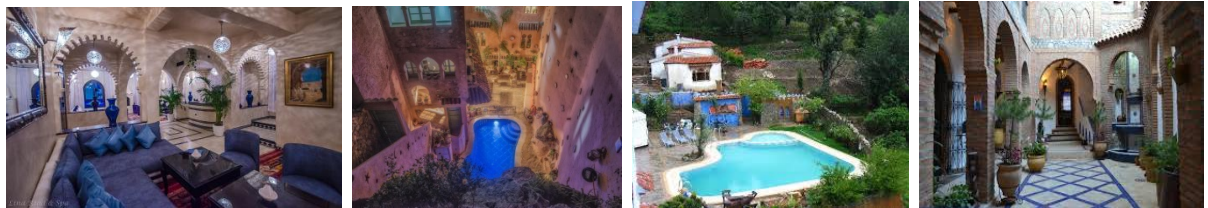

TAG 2 : CASABLANCA – RABAT- CHAFCHAOUEN

After breakfast, you will be picked up by your own carefully selected chauffeur and driven to Chefchaouen, or "Chaouen" as it is called locally. You will have the opportunity to discover Rabat, places like Mohammed V Mausoleum, the charming Kasbah of the Oudayas and the Chellah, an ancient Roman city.

Chafchaouen is a visual delight in blue; Walls, doors, windows; Stairs, alleys and archways - all is a combination of soft pastel blue and deeper, stronger shades. This afternoon you can explore at your own pace or just relax. Outa el Hammam is the main square, and the place to watch the world go by. Stroll up the tiny, hip-piggeldy lanes off the touristy areas and find the city's everyday life.

ACCOMMODATION : ONE OF THE 3 / 4 BEAUTIFUL RIADS IN CHAOUEN DOUBLE ROOM BB

DAY 3 : CHAFCHAOUEN SIGHTSEEING TOUR – VOLUBILIS – MEKNES – FES

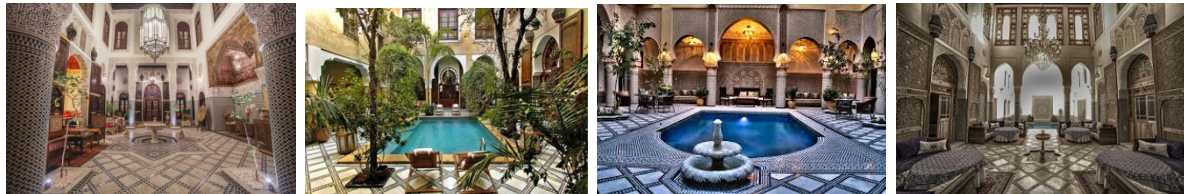

Today you can take a closer look at the "Blue City" . Either on your own or take a local guide. Start your day in Chefchaouen's beautiful medina. Picturesque and uncrowded, this part of the city provides an excellent place to experience the city's street life. In the heart of the medina is the Plaza Uta el-Hammam, a perfect place to enjoy a drink in a shady sidewalk café.

We say goodbye to Chefchaouen and drive south to Volubilis, the most important and extensive remains of a Roman city in Morocco. You move on to Moulay Idriss, who looks like a sitting camel from a distance. Morocco's oldest city was founded by Moulay Idriss I in 789 after fleeing Mecca.

Finally, we become the ancient royal city of Fes, the cultural and spiritual capital of Morocco and one of the most authentic medieval Islamic cities in the world. Your adventure for today ends here in your beautiful oriental riad, where you can rest and refresh yourself.

ACCOMMODATIONS : 3 / 4 STAR RIADS DOUBLE ROOM BB

DAY 4 : FES SIGHTSEEING TOUR * CULTURE / HISTORY / LOCALS & HAND CRAFT ON THE TRACK *

It's your chance to see the UNESCO protected Fez Medina through the eyes of a local, with your own private english speaking guide born in Fes. Your tour lasts from 10 am to 5:30 pm with a lunch break. Before leaving in the morning, discuss with your guide which attractions you would like to see, including the historic mosques, tanneries, and souqs.

If you've never been to Fez, let your private guide have a hand in designing your one-of-a-kind tour of Fez, and it'll be worth the while to reveal the secrets of the 9,000 labyrinthine streets and lanes that make up this amazing historic city - but do not worry, you will not be expected to go all of them! For sure you can also spend one more night in Fez to enjoy a private cooking class with a local family in Fez the morning, then start your second afternoon exploring the city.

Or take the afternoon and just go to Hammam followed by a good dose of massage. A magical effect and unique feeling!

DAY 5 : IFRANE – MIDELT – ARFOUD – RISSANI – MERZOUGA –ERG CHEBBI

Your discovery in southern Morocco begins today. You will drive through the Atlas mountains to the edge of the Sahara - a long but interesting journey. You drive via Ifrane Switzerland Morocco, over the landscape of the Mittelatlases into the desert, where you arrive in time to observe the unique sunset over the dunes.

Today you will experience one of the most memorable moments of your Moroccan adventure as you make your way to the dunes of the Moroccan region of Erg Chebbi in the Sahara Desert for an unforgettable night under the stars.

A camel ride along the dunes takes you to your luxurious camp, with its Bedouin-style tents and thick Moroccan rugs to keep the sand between your toes. A rich tagine is your dinner, which is eaten by candlelight. You will probably drift off as you watch the twinkling stars.

OVERNIGHT IN SAHARA DESERT CAMP WITH THW NOMADS FAMILY OF IDRE *****

DAY 6 : ERG CHEBBI – MERZOUGA – TOUDRA GORGES – SKOURA

Get up at dawn and watch the sun begin its daily bow with a cool blue morning sky as it illuminates the shadows of the desert before turning into a glowing fireball. Your first stop on the way is Tinjedat, where lunch is served.

Time permitting, visit Ksar El Khorbat, a covered city whose dark alleyways are punctuated by intermittent sunshine and home to a charming cultural museum.

Tonight stay in the palm grove of Skoura, known as the Valley of the Kasbahs.

ACCOMMODATIONS : IN A KASBAH IN SKOURA DOUBLE ROOM BB

DAY 7 : SKOURA – OUARZAZATE – AIT BENHADDOU – MARRAKESCH

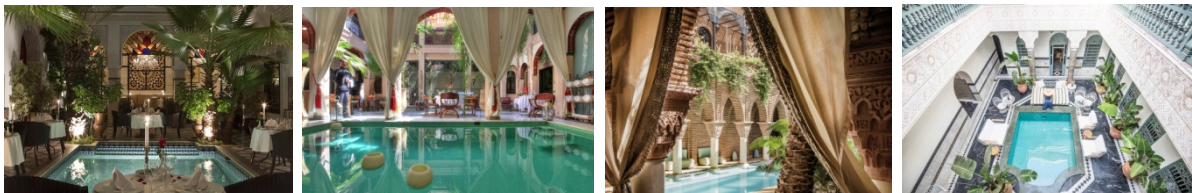

When you leave Skoura, your road heads towards Ouarzazate, the Hollywood of Africa, where Atlas Studios is considered one of the largest film studios in the world. Although many of our travelers do not choose to visit the film studio, the Kasbah de Taorirt in the city is worth a stop. It was once owned by the Glaoui family, one of the richest and most powerful in the region, whose enormous wealth was partly due to levies on the camel trains passing through their territory with gold, spices and slaves from Timbuktu on their journey to the markets of Marrakech and beyond, were.

Arriving in Ait Ben Haddou, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that is not only the best example in the area of a walled city protected by kasbahs, the homes of the rich and powerful, but was also the backdrop of many Hollywood blockbusters and great historical Television programs, including Gladiator and Lawrence of Arabia.

From Ait Ben Haddou you can continue in the less visited area of Telouet. Here you can meander over the former palace of the family Glaoui.

The final leg of today's journey will take you across the High Atlas Mountains on the impressive Zigzag of the Tiz n Tichka Pass to finally arrive in Marrakech, where you will have time to truly relax and recover from the journey before dinner served in the riad.
